8. Main Content

The draft Order amends an earlier Order which prohibited the sale in Northern Ireland of meat from any bovine animals slaughtered after 28 March 1996 and which at the time of slaughter were more than thirty months of age.

The proposed amendment has the effect of excluding from the scope of the prohibition meat from bovine animals slaughtered in certain countries as listed in the draft Order.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

This Order was drafted following concern that the sale of meat derived from older bovine animals may involve imminent risks of injury to health.
