8. Main Content

This order amends the list of approved disinfectants for the control of animal diseases in Scotland.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

EC animal health legislation requires that disinfectants used in connection with animal disease control procedures, and their concentrations, are authorised or officially approved. This is implemented in Great Britain by The Diseases of Animals (Approved Disinfectants) Order 1978 (as amended).

Schedule 1 to the order lists disinfectants and their dilution rates approved for use under the Animal Health Act. The attached draft Amendment Order will update Schedule 1; amendments include adding the names of products that are awaiting approval, deleting approvals and making changes to dilution rates where this has become necessary due to retesting.
