8. Main Content

The draft Royal Decree regulates the marking of hams and shoulders intended for curing-maturing and lays down the minimum periods of manufacture for specific references to be able to be used on labelling. It lays down the definitions of cured ham, cured shoulder, curing-maturing and minimum period of manufacture, the system of marking and identification for inspection of the period of manufacture and the conditions which must be met by hams and shoulders for the references defined in the Royal Decree to be able to be used on the labelling thereof, without prejudice to compliance with the General Standard on Labelling, Presentation and Advertising of Foodstuffs.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The drafting of this standard complies with the need to update and add flexibility to the marking system for hams and shoulders, taking into account the traceability system established pursuant to Regulation (EC) No 178/2002 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 28 January 2002 laying down the general principles and requirements of food law.

It also intends to facilitate the purchasing selection for the consumer, preventing unfair competition between operators using labels with markings which grade the product, given it added value, and which have variable periods of manufacture for the same marking.
