The Sale of Tobacco (Display Of Warning Statements) Regulations 2010.

6. Products Concerned

These regulations were made in exercise of the powers conferred by section 8 (5) of the Tobacco and Primary Medical Services (Scotland) Act 2010 ("the relevant primary legislation"). Section 8 (2) of the Act requires tobacco retailers to display a notice that states: "It is illegal to sell products to anyone under the age of 18" at all points of sale of tobacco products.

8. Main Content

These regulations stipulate that the dimensions of the notice should be not less than 297 millimetres by 420 millimetres. It is also stated that no character on the notice should be less than 36 millimetres high. The regulations are a restatement of the equivalent provision in the Protection from Tobacco (Display of Warning Statements) Regulations 1992 (which were not notified).

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The reason for making these regulations, which are a restatement of regulations already in force, is to integrate them into the Tobacco and Primary Medical Services (Scotland) Act 2010 which sets out a range of measures aimed at making tobacco less attractive and less accessible to children and young people under 18 years of age.
