8. Main Content

The progress of standardisation requires the update of the normative reference system governing gas pipes, in particular in terms of setting pipe connectors, flexible pipe connectors and branch safety gas pipes.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The specifications CCH AFG 2007-01 “Collapsible corrugated stainless steel hose kits for the gas in buildings with an operating pressure less than or equal to 0.5 bar (PLT kits)” and CCH AFG 2006-01 “Short flexible hoses for the connection of gas distribution works by pipes” are updated in order to take into consideration the new practices with regard to ageing materials and the introduction of specific provisions for the manufacture of PLT leader pipes, respectively.

Specification CCH 2005-01 “Security gas nozzles outside and/or inside buildings for domestic appliances or in public establishments, fed by flexible hose using fuel gas distributed via the network or in receptacles” is added to the list: it establishes the specifications for security gas nozzles used in residential buildings or their outbuildings: without such specifications, the implementation and the use of this type of material are banned in France.
