8. Main Content

Aside from the introductory heading, which contains general provisions, the content of the draft decree is organised as follows:

A first heading which governs the recognition and revocation of the DOP and IGP designations and other quality marks in Castile and Leon, and the recognition and suspension of management bodies and regulatory boards, as well as their structure and role.

A second heading which governs the official monitoring of differentiated quality marks in Castile and Leon and lays down the requirements for delegating specific monitoring tasks to monitoring bodies.

A third heading which sets out the creation of a database – accessible to all citizens – of operators protected by differentiated quality marks in Castile and Leon.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The regulations in Castile and Leon Agriculture Law 1/2014 need developing; procedural details not laid down at Community and/or national level must be set out at autonomous community level.

In addition, the aim is to increase transparency by laying down the requirements that regulatory boards must satisfy to be able to carry out public functions and the requirements that monitoring bodies must satisfy for them to be delegated monitoring tasks.
