5. Title

Draft order regulating certain aspects relating to the provision of dietetic products of the National Health System.

6. Products Concerned

Dietetic foodstuffs for special medical uses fundable by the National Health System

7. Notification Under Another Act

8. Main Content

Updates the identification requirements for dietetic products funded by the National Health System; indicates the criteria for the allocation of the 'product type' for the purposes of their funding; lays down the procedure to be followed by companies for the inclusion of their products in the range of fundable dietetic products and the obligations of these companies with regard to the funding of their products; updates the Advisory Committee for the Provision of Dietetic Products.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The provision of dietetic products is included amongst the provisions covered by Law 16/2003 of 28 May on Consistency and Quality of the National Health System, which stipulates that health provisions shall be carried out by means of the portfolio of common services of the National Health System. The draft regulation that establishes the portfolio of common services of the National Health System (currently under negotiation) indicated the provision of dietetic products currently being provided by the National Health System, indicating the pathologies, clinical situations and other requirements for this provision and stipulates that fundable dietetic products must be included on the General Health Register of Foodstuffs as dietetic foodstuffs for special medical uses and included in the range of dietetic products available, and that the procedure for the inclusion of products in that range will be laid down by ministerial order.

For its part, the Order of 15 December 2000 laid down the conditions for identification of dietetic products eligible for funding by the National Health System, which must be updated.
