8. Main Content

The purpose of the draft Order is to amend the Order of 3 January 2008 on radio services broadcast in digital mode by terrestrial radio relay or by satellite in band L or in band S, laying down the characteristics of the signals emitted, in order to add DAB + as a broadcasting standard for digital terrestrial radio (DTR). The purpose of the draft Order is thus to establish broadcasting standards for digital radio, in the interests of efficient management of the radio spectrum. Furthermore, the amendment to the Order of 3 January 2008 hereby notified restricts the scheduling of audiovisual services on sub-band V of the UHF band from 470-790 MHz.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

A broad public consultation has been launched by the Government, principally to sound the opinions of the players concerned on the opportunity to add the DAB + standard - technical specifications TS 102 563 - to the T-DMB standard for digital radio broadcasts by terrestrial radio relay on frequency bands III (174-230 MHz) and L (1 452-1 492 MHz). This consultation revealed a consensus from the majority of players to add the DAB+ standard, in the bands in question, as a supplement to T-DMB. The restriction on the scheduling of sub-band V has been imposed in the context of freeing up the 790-862 MHz sub-band and reallocating it for new electronic communication services (following the termination of analogue services on French territory), in accordance with the Order of 22 December 2008 approving the national termination of analogue services and a switchover to digital.
