4. Notification Number

2001/461/E - BOO

5. Title

Draft Royal Decree adopting the earthquake-resistant construction standard: General and Building (NCSE1-2001).

6. Products Concerned

The technical regulation does not lay down technical specifications for construction products.

7. Notification Under Another Act

8. Main Content

1. The aim of the technical regulation is to establish the criteria that must be followed within Spanish territory in order to take account of seismic activity in the design, construction, repair and preservation of buildings and also civil engineering.

2. As the regulation does not establish technical specifications for construction products, the mutual recognition clause is not drawn up specifically for that purpose. However, in section 1(2), "Application of the standard", 1.2.1 "Scope" it is established that: "Criteria other than those established in the regulation may be adopted, provided that the level of construction service and safety is not lower than that laid down by the standard..."

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

Updating the current standard.

10. Reference Documents - Basic Texts
