5. Title

MPT 1602; Performance Specification for video surveillance equipment and antennas operating in the centre gap of the 13GHz fixed link frequency band channel plan.

6. Products Concerned

Radiocommunications equipment used in video surveillance operations.

7. Notification Under Another Act

8. Main Content

The regulation details the performance requirements for video surveillance transmitting and receiving equipments (including antennas) for type approval testing purposes in the UK. There are no equivalent standards.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The regulation has been raised in order to facilitate use of the radio spectrum identified in the regulation for this specific video surveillance application. The application satisfies a niche market in the UK for transportable video surveillance.
