8. Main Content

The draft Royal Decree amends Royal Decree No 824 of 8 July 2005 on fertilising products (Notification No 2004/099/E) to enable the bulk transport of nitric acid and phosphoric acid (fertilisers included in Royal Decree No 824/2005, used in agriculture and classified as being hazardous).

The draft also introduces some technical clarifications and corrects errors in Royal Decree No 824/2005.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The amendments introduced by the Royal Decree relating to the transport of certain products considered as fertilisers in Royal Decree No 824 of 8 July 2005, used in Spanish agriculture and which are classified as being hazardous, (including nitric acid and phosphoric acid), consist of the authorisation to distribute to farmers in cisterns for use in organic irrigation techniques, which have great advantages for agronomics, the economy and the environment, as long as the safety standards that apply to manufacturers and transporters are complied with, as laid down in the European Agreement concerning the International Carriage of Dangerous Goods by Road (ADR) concluded at Geneva on 30 September 1957 and ratified by Spain.
