8. Main Content

This draft aims to extend the expiry date with the aim of adapting it to the new market conditions established in the Community countries around us, as also the storage temperature and heat-treatment process of milk, as well as the raw material microbiological criteria, in accordance with Directives 92/46/CC and 92/47/EEC.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

As a result of the technological progress which has occurred over recent years in the production, distribution and marketing processes of concentrated milk, it is advisable to amend the general quality standard for this type of milk.
