8. Main Content

This draft establishes an appropriate legal channel which is adapted to current legislation on electronic signatures in order to allow the rapid introduction of services necessary to ensure security, validity and efficiency in communications of the general state administration and its public bodies through electronic, computer and telematic techniques and means.

This draft concerns the provision of technical and administrative services for the Spanish Royal Mint, without prejudice to the public administrations and their dependent bodies being able to use and apply other electronic, computer and telematic means.

This includes the issue of electronic certificates by the Spanish Royal Mint, the basic requirements of which will be laid down in a later national standard (Ministerial Order).

Lastly, the system of the provision of services is regulated and the requirements for applications for electronic certificates and for users, as well as the corresponding obligations for the Spanish Royal Mint with regard to the provision of the aforementioned services are laid down.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

This draft has been drawn up with the aim of implementing Article 81 of Act No 66/1997 of 30 December 1997 on fiscal, administrative and social measures.
