8. Main Content

These regulations prescribe the requirements for the Zebra and the light-controlled Pelican pedestrian crossings. They will also permit the wider use of light-controlled Puffin pedestrian crossings by setting out their requirements for the first time in regulations.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

As part of a deregulation exercise, the new regulations combine, simplify and make less prescriptive the existing Zebra and Pelican pedestrian crossing regulations. The opportunity is taken to set out the requirements for the Puffin pedestrian crossings within the same regulations.
