8. Main Content

The draft order specifies the characteristics of non-road gas oil, as laid down in the Order of 23 December 1999, as amended, on the characteristics of gas oil and low-temperature gas oil.

This order is co-signed by the Director-General for Energy and Climate and the Director-General for Customs and Indirect Taxes.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

Specifying the technical characteristics of non-road gas oil, thus repealing and replacing the current order, which has become obsolete from both a legal and technical perspective. Adding previously non-existent seasonal characteristics for the Overseas Departments.

The fuel concerned is intended for 'non-road' use, as defined by the Order of 10 November 2011 laying down usage conditions for gas oil, LPG and water emulsions in gas oil under which the special tax regime established by Article 265 of the Customs Code as regards domestic consumption tax can be applied, as amended.
