8. Main Content

This regulation aims to establish the essential requirements and the minimum safety measures which must be complied with when designing, constructing, using and maintaining installations for storing LPG in fixed tanks, intended for supply or distribution for their consumption in installations receiving them.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The implementation of the order of 29 January 1986, which the draft now presented amends, has provided such varied experience that it is considered appropriate to draw up a text with more clarity and efficacy.
