8. Main Content

The Order extends an agreement aiming to improve the quality of certain varieties of table grapes produced in France, throughout the marketing campaign. This agreement, signed on 5 November 2014, was concluded for a period of three years. It renews the provisions of the previous agreement for the 2014 campaign notified under No 2014/110/F. It establishes maturity requirements defined by a refractometric index. Its purpose is to ensure the maturity of marketed fruit when sold to consumers, by setting a minimum sugar content higher than that established under the regulations. Under this order, the rules set out in the triennial inter-branch agreement, which will remain unchanged until 2017, will become compulsory on French territory. These rules will therefore apply to the 2016 and 2017 campaigns.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

It is a quality initiative relating to the fresh fruit and vegetable sector. The inter-branch association considers that the inter-branch agreement contributes to improving the tasting qualities of the grapes: a minimum sugar level guarantees better maturity of the product and consequently increases consumer fidelity.
