5. Title

Decree No. of 2010 implementing Article L.214-1 of the French Consumer Code relating to labelling, advertising or presentation of foodstuffs containing an ingredient of protected origin.

6. Products Concerned

Foodstuffs in which a product of protected origin is used as an ingredient.

7. Notification Under Another Act

- Directive 2000/13/EC relating to the labelling, presentation and advertising of foodstuffs

8. Main Content

The draft text covers the labelling, advertising and presentation of foodstuffs in which a product of protected origin (controlled origin, protected origin, protected geographical indication, geographical indication) is used as an ingredient.

The name of the product of protected origin may be included in the labelling, advertising or presentation of a manufactured product if no other comparable or similar ingredient has been used. Otherwise, it may only appear in the list of ingredients.

The draft law defines the concept of comparable or similar ingredient.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

It is important that the labelling of manufactured products that are not of protected origin (controlled origin, protected origin, protected geographical indication, geographical indication) but which contain several ingredients, some of which may be of protected origin, be managed. Indeed, the reputation of products of protected origin should be protected and the consumer given the information he is entitled to expect.

10. Reference Documents - Basic Texts

Reference texts: Articles L.641-7, L.641-11 and L.641-11-1 of the French Rural and Sea Fisheries Code, Articles L.214-1 and L.214-2 of the French Consumer Code
