8. Main Content

The Gambling Commission recently consulted on amendments to the technical standards applicable to category C gaming machines. This submission includes the revised technical standards which we hope to implement. These apply to certain aspects of category C gaming machines only and have been developed in consultation with the gaming machines industry.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The Gambling Commission decided to consult on these changes to assist the market for category C gaming machines and to encourage the removal of legacy machines from the market.
