8. Main Content

A. Medical equipment and bandaging: Bandaging and injection pack, minor-surgery instrument and equipment, medical examination and supervision equipment, immobilization and retention equipment, cardio-respiratory resuscitation equipment, various items of equipment, disinfection, protection.

B. Medicines: Antibiotics, anti-infection medicines for general administration, Medicines for the respiratory system, Medicines for the cardiovascular system, Medicines for the digestive system, Medicines for the nervous system, analgesics, Compounds intended to make up the (blood) circulatory volume and restore the hydro - electrolytic balance, antiseptics and dermatological medicines, Eye, ear, nose and throat medicines.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

It is a matter of modernizing the current medical and pharmaceutical stores which were last updated comprehensively ten years ago (Order of 3 June 1980 as amended by the Order of 14 January 1983). This is possibly a replacement on a one for one basis of certain medicines. The equipment stores remain virtually the same. This rearrangement draws upon the activities of the committee on the harmonization of the minimum requirements applying to the medical stores held on board ship (CEC/LUX/V/E/3/16/88 of 14 July 1988).

This draft received a favourable opinion from the Committee on Health and the Prevention of Industrial Accidents at Sea (meeting of 15 February 1990 attended by representatives of the Merchant Navy, the fishing fleet and the Ministries concerned: (Ministry of the Sea, Ministry of Health, Ministry of Labour).

10. Reference Documents - Basic Texts

The basic text is the Ministerial Order of 3 June 1980 on the nomenclature for the medical and pharmaceutical equipment to be carried on board merchant and fishing vessels. Provision has been made for introduction of the new text into the regulation attached to the order of 23 November 1987 on ship safety. It would constitute Chapter 217-2 of that regulation, which concerns medical equipment and pharmaceutical products.
