5. Title

The Small Commercial Vessels and Pilot Boat Code of Practice

6. Products Concerned

The Code of Practice sets out standards of safety for UK vessels of up to 24 metres in length which are engaged at sea in activities, on a commercial basis, which carry cargo and/or not more than 12 passengers

7. Notification Under Another Act

8. Main Content

The Regulations will provide an option for the owners/operators of small commercial vessels and pilot boats to comply with the Code of Practice as an alternative to compliance with a number of other Merchant Shipping Regulations. The Code makes requirements for the construction, machinery, safety equipment, manning and qualifications. The Code also establishes a regime of survey, certification, inspection and maintenance.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The primary aim in developing the Code has been to set standards of safety and protection for all on board and particularly for those who are trainees or passengers. The level of safety it sets out to achieve is considered to be commensurate with the current expectations of the general public.

10. Reference Documents - Basic Texts

The draft code and regulations are attached. This draft Code and the regulations are a result of a review of four existing Codes of Practice which were previously notified as below: 1992/121/UK, 97/32/UK and 97/33/UK and 1999/39/UK
