8. Main Content

This is a code of Practice for Rural Land Use, clearly setting out recommended good practice for land uses such as agriculture, forestry, sporting use and conservation, as appropriate across Scotland. The scope exists to make compliance with this code conditional on support payments to land users although this option is not being taken up at this time.

The UK will fulfil its obligation under Article 12 of Directive 98/34/EC when these regulations are officially published.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The reason for this Code of Practice is that it is pitched at a strategic level which recommends a joined up approach to rural land use. Current codes of practice and reference material in this area tend to deal with specific subjects at a greater level of detail. They are cross-referenced to this new over-arching document.
