8. Main Content

The draft consists of a Royal Decree adopting the Regulation and its supplementary technical instructions (abbreviated to STI-EA with the corresponding number).

As in other regulations, the “Regulation” contains the general, fundamentally administrative, provisions, while the “STIs” deal specifically and technically with the various aspects relating to the objective of the legislation:

STI EA 01 ENERGY EFFICIENCY, how to achieve it and classify it;
STI EA 02 LIGHTING LEVELS, maximums in relation to the reference levels;
STI EA 03 BRIGHTNESS OF NIGHT LIGHT AND INTRUSIVE OR NUISANCE LIGHT, which affects the environment and the comfort and safety of people;
STI EA 04 INSTALLATION COMPONENTS, as a fundamental part in the achievement of the objectives;
- STI EA 05 TECHNICAL DOCUMENTATION, VERIFICATIONS AND INSPECTIONS, administrative supplement;
- STI EA 06 MAINTENANCE OF ENERGY EFFICIENCY IN THE INSTALLATIONS, so that the effects of the regulation will last;
- STI EA 07 LIGHTING MEASUREMENTS IN LIGHTING INSTALLATIONS, in order to achieve comparable rules and results, in such a way that all this should be considered jointly, and in relation to the previously existing legal framework.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The aim of the draft, in short, is to lay down, in addition to the safety conditions previously laid down in the Low-Voltage Electro-technical Regulation (Notification No 2001/159/E), the design and maintenance requirements for improving energy efficiency and energy saving in external lighting installations, which should also result in a decrease in greenhouse gas emissions, and the elimination, where possible, of both night lighting (light pollution) and intrusive or nuisance lighting (for example, glaring lights).
