8. Main Content

It basically updates the annexe to appendix 1, containing the list of UNE standards which must be complied with by the apparatus, equipment and systems governed by Royal Decree 1942/1993, of 5 November, a large part of which have been amended as a result of technical developments and by the publication of new European standards (EN), taking the opportunity to introduce amendments which clarify the interpretation of the provisions of the regulation approved by said Royal Decree.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

In addition to what has been said in point 8 above, the maintaining of the current provisions is obliging Spanish manufacturers to certify their products in accordance with the obsolete standards for the national market and to repeat the certifications according to the new standards for the rest of the European market.
