8. Main Content

The draft Order introduces amendments to the Order of 9 January 1990 on the measures applicable to floating establishments or stationary vessels and stationary vessels on inland waterways open to the public with regard to lighting and electricity.

The planned amendments follow from those made to the common general provisions for establishments open to the public of the first group (Articles EL and EC);

In compliance with Article GN 14 of the Order of 25 June 1980 (amended) on the safety regulations to counter the outbreak of fire and panic in establishments open to the public [French designation ERP], appliances or equipment referred to in this draft text must conform to one of the following:

- French standards;
- harmonised European standards;
- national technical specifications of other Member States of the European Union or of the European Economic Area recognised by a Community decision, that are listed and published in the French Official Gazette;
- standards or technical specifications of other Member States of the European Union or of the European Economic Area recognised as equivalent, on advice from the competent bodies responsible for the publication of the texts concerned. The list of these standards or technical specifications shall be published in the French Official Gazette.

Where there are no standards or technical specifications such as those referred to in the second and third indents above or where the products are exempt from these, the European Technical Approval shall attest the fitness for use of the above products.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

This draft Order is intended to:

- integrate technical innovations and European standards;
- improve the readability of the text by better distinguishing between matters relating to electricity and matters relating to lighting;
- ensure, in these areas, consistency with regulations concerning other sectors of activity.

10. Reference Documents - Basic Texts
