5. Title

Draft Royal Decree amending Royal Decree 846/2011 of 17 June, establishing conditions which must be met by recycled polymer-based raw materials for use in materials and articles intended to come into contact with food.

6. Products Concerned

KEY WORDS: RECYCLED, PLASTIC, SOFT DRINK

Recycled polymer materials for use in materials and articles intended to come into contact with food.

7. Notification Under Another Act

8. Main Content

Extension of the authorisation to sell and use recycled polyethylene terephthalate (PET)-based raw materials obtained in Spain for use in plastic materials and articles intended to come into contact with soft drinks.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The European Food Safety Authority (EFSA) is evaluating the safety of recycling processes submitted by applicants based on the procedure pursuant to Regulation (EC) No 282/2008, which it expects to complete after the end of 2012 with the publication of a positive list of such processes. Given this situation, the National Association of Non-Alcoholic Soft Drink Manufacturers has submitted a request to expand the scope of application of the above Royal Decree to soft drinks. Other member states have also drawn up provisions applicable during this transitory period, which include exceptions for materials manufactured with recycled polyethylene terephthalate (PET) for use in non-alcoholic drinks.

10. Reference Documents - Basic Texts

References to the basic texts: - Royal Decree 650/2011 of 9 May approving the technical-sanitary regulation on soft drinks.

- Royal Decree 846/2011 of 17 June establishing the conditions which must be met by recycled polymer-based raw materials for use in materials and articles intended to come into contact with food.
