5. Title

Draft Royal Decree adopting the Regulation on Technical Conditions and Safety Guarantees in High-Voltage Electricity Lines and the Supplementary Technical Instructions STI-LAT 01 to 09.

8. Main Content

The draft consists of a Royal Decree adopting the Regulation and its supplementary technical instructions (STIs).

As in other regulations, the “Regulation” contains the general, fundamentally administrative, provisions, while the “STIs” deal specifically and technically with the various types of lines, on the one hand, and develop administrative provisions, on the other hand; both parts must be considered jointly and in relation to the previously existing legal framework.

The aim of the draft, in short, is to lay down technical conditions for high-voltage electricity lines for an adequate energy transport and distribution service while protecting the safety of persons and property.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

In general, it concerns an update, both within the legal and the technical framework, of the Regulation on high-voltage lines. In particular, it covers the existing regulatory gap regarding lines that have insulating covers for special purposes as well as underground lines.
