8. Main Content

A. These proposed Regulations which amend the Motor Vehicles (Type Approval for Goods Vehicles) (Great Britain) Regulations 1982 (the 1982 Regulations) should be considered together with the proposed new Motor Vehicles (Approval) Regulations 1996 (the Approval Regulations) - see separate notification attached). They would bring within the scope of the 1982 Regulations the following classes of vehicle as defined in regulation 3(2) of these regulations which are currently exempt by virtue of this regulation:-

Prototypes (sub-paragraph (ee));
Amateur-built vehicles (sub-paragraph (q));
Personal import vehicles (sub-paragraph (r));

by deleting these sub-paragraphs. These amending Regulations, taken together with the Approval Regulations, would enable these vehicles to obtain a Minister's Approval Certificate, either by complying with the existing national type approval requirements for goods vehicles (in the 1982 Regulations, see regulation 4 and Schedule 1) or by complying with the proposed single vehicle approval requirements for light (category N1) goods vehicles (in the Approval Regulations, see regulation 6 and Schedule 3).

This draft does not introduce any new standards or testing requirements.

B. The United Kingdom would like to be informed by other

Member States of their own standards or regulations offering an equivalent level of safety and security.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The reason for these amending Regulations is the same as the main reason for the Approval Regulations? (see separate notification attached).
