7. Notification Under Another Act

8. Main Content

The aim of this Decree is to lay down additional technical and operating conditions to those laid down in National Legislation for petrol pumps for supply to vehicles

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

Following the entry into force of Royal Decree No 842 of 2 August 2002, adopting the low voltage electrotechnical regulation, the need to amend the Resolution of 2 July 1999 of the Directorate-General for Industry, Energy and Mines relating to the conditions which must be met by electrical installations in service stations and petrol pumps was identified, with the aim of bringing it into line with the new regulation

This regulation is intended to supplement and interpret some aspects of the regulatory provisions in force to improve the safety of both petrol pumps for supply to vehicles as well as the functioning of these, which will result in better service provision to citizens.

The Member State having written the notification must express, in no more than 10 lines, the reasons justifying the drawing up of the draft. (We would ask Member States not to repeat the information already given in other points of the notification message.)
