5. Title

The Trailer Registration Regulations 2018 - Part 3 - Registration marks and plates

6. Products Concerned

The Trailer Registration Regulations, expected to be published in draft in September 2018, will establish a registration scheme in the United Kingdom for trailers drawn on roads by motor vehicles.

The plate used to display the registration mark of the trailer (more commonly known as the registration number) must be in compliance with the specification that will be set out in these Regulations.

7. Notification Under Another Act

8. Main Content

The Trailer Registration Regulations will require that a registration mark is displayed on each registered trailer. The Regulations will specify:

the size, shape and spacing of the characters used to display the registration mark;
the physical characteristics of the plate that the registration mark is displayed upon; and how the plate should be fixed to the trailer.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

It is necessary to specify the characteristics referred to above in regulations so that the appearance of registration marks/plates on registered trailers is uniform. This will ensure the mark can be reliably read by enforcement authorities when the trailer is being used on a road, which will allow the trailer and its owner/keeper/user to be identified.

13. Confidentiality

No

14. Fiscal measures

No

15. Impact assessment

No impact. Registration plate manufacturers already have the capability to produce plates that meet the specified standards, which are in line with the existing standards for motor vehicle marks/plates.

16. TBT and SPS aspects

TBT aspect

No - The draft has no significant impact on international trade

SPS aspect

No - The draft is not a sanitary or phytosanitary measure
