8. Main Content

This draft concerns the regulatory development and application of Law 11/2009 of 6 July on the administrative regulation of public shows and recreational activities. The general objectives sought with this draft measure are as follows:

- To provide a single text regulating the different regulatory issues directly affecting the sector covering public shows, recreational activities and establishments or spaces open to the public.
- To regulate and cover different leisure events in Catalonia.
- To provide a balance between rights and duties, with special emphasis on protecting the rights and interests of people who, on account of their vicinity or similar circumstances, are directly affected by these activities.

Articles 66, 67, 68 and 69 of the regulation set out means for controlling the capacity of establishments for public shows and recreational activities. Specifically, they establish the obligation to have an automatic capacity control system. Distinctions are made between establishments from 151 people and from 501 people. An image recording system that continuously records everyone entering and leaving said establishments must be installed. Annex III to the regulation sets out the technical requirements for capacity control systems, their installation and location, operating standards and checks.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The articles of Law 11/2009 of 6 July on the administrative regulation of public shows and recreational activities makes reference to regulatory standards that are to specify and/or develop their content. There are currently many aspects relating to public shows and recreational activities that are regulated by different general regulations.

The regulatory diversity in Catalonia in the field justifies the need to attempt to concentrate the regulations in a single document. Specifically, the draft measure, in addition to regulating many new aspects, contains much of the content of eight decrees, which will be repealed. Furthermore, the need to eliminate certain duplications, revise concepts, streamline and reduce administrative processes and introduce the amendments required to the regulations to adapt them to new social and cultural characteristics, which incorporate new trends in leisure and entertainment, justifies the adoption of the new decree
