OBJECTIVE: specific technical standards adapting health and hygiene rules for businesses working with bread, pastry and flour products. The technical standard shall apply to non-industrial businesses involved in making bread, pastry and flour products and which wish to benefit from the aforementioned adaptation scheme, as stipulated in Article 7 of Decree 76/2016 of 17 May 2016.

DESCRIPTION: The businesses in question are those with a small workshop where the product is produced and packaged (whether or not on a daily basis) to be sold directly to the end consumer either at a point of sale adjoining the workshop or elsewhere as specified by Decree 76/2016. For the bread-making sector, production volumes must not exceed 1 250 kg of flour a week.

For the pastry sector, the maximum number of workers in the workshop is 3.

Health and hygiene RULES are set out for the following areas:

location and access roads;

layout, design and dimensions of the businesses and premises;

internal structures of the premises;

water supply;

effluents and wastewater;

lighting;

ventilation;

equipment and utensils;

sanitary facilities and changing rooms;

personal hygiene;

cleaning and disinfection;
pest control;
storage, handling and disposal of waste, non-edible by-products and returns;
modes of transport;
operational hygiene (products and processes);
operator training;
packaging and wrapping;
labelling and traceability;
self-monitoring system.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

Decree 76/2016 of 17 May 2016 laying down the conditions for adapting health and hygiene requirements for various areas of agricultural production in the Basque Country is aimed at specifying the minimum conditions for adapting the health and hygiene requirements for the types of agricultural production specified in Article 2 thereof.

Article 6 of Decree 76/2016 of 17 May 2016 stipulates that 'Technical standards shall be approved by way of an order enacted by the persons in charge of the relevant health, agriculture and food quality departments.'

The notified order lays down the adaptation of health and hygiene requirements for businesses working with bread, pastry and flour products.
