The draft Decree regulates, within the Autonomous Community of Cantabria, amusement and gaming machines or coin-activated appliances which, in exchange for a fee, enable the player to be purely entertained or amused or to obtain a prize, as well as certain aspects of economic activities related to such machines or appliances, including their manufacture, import, export, type-approval and registration of models, distribution, installation or positioning and use.

Key words: Gaming, machines, amusement

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The drafting of this Decree is justified by the need to develop the provisions of the recent Law No 15 of Cantabria of 24 October 2006 on gaming, and in particular by the need to adapt existing legislation to the constant technological developments regarding the machines.

In addition to updating the rules, our legislation also required a series of changes in terms of both procedure and legal interpretation. Likewise, the current situation at national level calls for adaptation to new needs in this sector, and for administrative intervention to be revised.
