8. Main Content

The order extends an agreement to improve the quality of some varieties of table grapes produced in France throughout the marketing season. It establishes maturity requirements defined by a refractometric index. This is to ensure the maturity of the fruit at the point of sale to consumers by setting a minimum sugar content higher than that defined in the regulations.

Keyword: grape - sugar content - quality - maturity - marketing - standardization

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

By virtue of this order, the rules defined in the inter-branch agreement shall be made mandatory on French territory. This order will improve the taste of table grapes covered by the agreement.

This agreement has been extended by an Order of 07 August 2012 for the marketing season of 2012, following notification 2012/236/F
