8. Main Content

The proposed Royal Decree establishes the time limits for used self-propelled mobile cranes, which do not comply with the safety requirements established in the STI MIE-AEM4, to adjust to the requirements of the same.
Said STI specifies the scope and contains a series of annexes which detail the safety requirements which must be complied with by said machines, procedures for declaring conformity, maintenance, periodic overhauls, official inspections and their records.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

Due to the fact that all the self-propelled mobile cranes in use on construction sites have varying and, in certain cases, unsatisfactory characteristics, it is essential to establish some minimum requirements with which all these cranes must
