8. Main Content

This Order updates the categories of cement the designation of which is subject to compliance with the appropriate French standards indicated in the Annex of the text. The mutual recognition clause is laid down in Article 1(2).

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

This Order amends the Order of 15 October 1990 so as to take into account the consequences of the application of the Order of 2 March 2001 to common cements by implementing the Decree of 8 July 1992 transposing Directive 89/106/EC on construction products. The cements concerned by the Order of 2 March 2001 shall be withdrawn from the Annex. Article 3 lays down the conditions of withdrawal from the scope of those remaining where they are subject to the application of the Decree of 8 July 1992 transposing Directive 89/106/EC. This Order manages a transitional situation and shall become null and void when all the categories of cement are subject to the Directive.
