8. Main Content

In compliance with article 4 of the draft decree defining the conditions under which declarations are underwritten and authorisations granted concerning cryptology methods and services, the provisions in the text aim to stipulate the list of cryptology methods and services for those where the declaratory system replaces the authorisation system, as well as the operations (supply, use, export, import) where this declaratory system applies.

There is no reference to Directive 83/189/EEC in this draft order although it will appear in the final text

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The text is drawn up in application of article 28 of the Law regulating telecommunications of 29 December 1990, amended by article 17 of the Law regulating telecommunications of 26 July 1996. It supplements the draft decree defining the conditions in which declarations are underwritten and authorisations granted concerning cryptology methods and services. Its provisions clarify the implementation of the new systems defined by the Law regarding cryptology methods and services.

This notification, in compliance with article 8 point 1 of Directive 83/189/EEC, is in response to point D.1. of the Commissions observations no.° 7302036632 of 29/10/1997.
