8. Main Content

The order extends an agreement that aims to improve the quality of peaches and nectarines produced in France throughout the selling season. The agreement aims to ban the sale of size-D peaches and nectarines (small sizes) before 30 June of the crop year.

This provision is part of the extension to the marketing standard applicable to peaches and nectarines provided for under Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) No 543/2011 of 7 June 2011, which bans size-D peaches and nectarines from being placed on the market from 1 July to 31 October.

The inter-branch agreement is not applicable to peaches and nectarines sold separately for processing.

Keywords: peach, nectarine – size D – marketing

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

Under this Order, the rules set out in the inter-branch agreement will become compulsory in France. The ban on size D from the start of the season in France makes it possible to ensure the sufficient growth of the fruit and guarantee that fruit placed on the market has reached a satisfactory level of maturity which meets consumer requirements.
