8. Main Content

The draft Regulations amend the definition of a sub-category B3 gaming machine as set out in the Categories of Gaming Machine Regulations 2007 (S.I. 2007/2158) by increasing the maximum charge for use of such machine from £1 to £2.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The UK Government considers that the current £1 maximum charge for use of a sub-category B3 gaming machine, which has applied since 1 September 2007, is outdated in the present economic climate. The UK Government is currently carrying out a public consultation and believes it is likely that this will confirm its view that the maximum charge for use should be increased to £2.
