8. Main Content

The draft documents are the implementing standard sd 6/95 and third (1995) annual update of the previously notified specification for highways works (shw),notes for guidance to specification for highways works (ngshw) and highways construction details (hcd).Ec refs 90/030/UK. 90/0312/UK, 93/0118/UK and 94/0221/UK.

The amendments bring these standards up to date by including changes to mutual recognition clauses, technical advances and corrigenda.

The specification for highway works is the basis of all contract documentation for new highway works,reconstruction works and maintenance in the UK.

The use of these documents is mandatory for all trunk roads, including motorways, in england. Other overseeing departments (the scottish development department, the welsh office and the department of the environment northern ireland) incorporate certain amendments to take account of local conditions.

The United Kingdom would be pleased to be informed by other member states of the European economic area of their own standards or regulations offering an equivalent level of safety and security.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The departmental standards, shw and hcd, are used in the public procurement of highway in the UK. They form the basis of specifications for products and workmanship to be used.

The departmental standards also list types of products requiring various kinds of approval so that manufacturers and suppliers can obtain such approval without being constrained by time-scales of particular contracts.

The published document will be reviewed when any relevant European technical approvals or standards, whether harmonised or not, are introduced.
