8. Main Content

The aim of this draft is to approve the specifications for the controlled designation of origin 'Bois de Jura'. These specifications define the geographical area of production and processing, the elements proving that the product indeed originates from this geographical area, as well as the method of obtaining the wood and the products obtained from this wood. They also describe the elements demonstrating the link between this product and the geographical environment. Finally, they cite the references concerning the control structure, the main control points and their evaluation methods, as well as the elements specific to the labelling of the product.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The application for recognition of a controlled designation of origin was submitted by the Association française pour l'appellation d'Origine Contrôlée 'Bois du Jura' (French Association for the controlled designation of origin 'Bois de Jura').

These draft specifications have been subject to a national objection procedure, at the end of which no objection was lodged.

'Bois de Jura' is a product for which all of the manufacturing stages take place in the Jura massif. The natural and human factors that have developed in this geographical area bestow this sawn timber with its specific characteristics. Obtaining the controlled designation of origin will make it possible to promote the geographical origin, typicality and knowledge of those involved in the Bois de Jura sector. The wood, thus identified, will be able to be chosen for its qualities, the knowledge applied during its processing and its traceability.
