8. Main Content

The draft Order contains obligations imposed upon the owners of vessels falling within its scope, concerning:

1. the identification of the craft;
2. the ship's certificate (licence issued by the competent authority and authorising the navigation);
3. technical rules which must be observed by the vessels, particularly concerning:
 - solidity;
 - watertight integrity of the hull;
 - maximum load;
 - stability and buoyancy of the vessel;
 - safety and emergency equipment;
 - manoeuvrability;
 - the engine;
 - visibility and navigation lights.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The draft Order aims to regulate public transport on inland waterways in Guyana. This draft Order aims to register and identify pirogues used to transport goods or passengers, but also to respond to safety issues, taking into account the specific issues of navigation on the rivers in Guyana. Recreational craft are excluded from the scope of this draft Order.
