8. Main Content

These Regulations amend the Measuring Equipment (Liquid Fuel and Lubricants) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1998 ("the 1998 Regulations").

The 1998 Regulations are amended to prescribe the tests which an inspector of weights and measures shall apply to measuring equipment with a view to passing it as fit for use for trade and stamping it.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The 1998 Regulations require the testing and verification of equipment used for the measurement of liquid fuel and lubricants, but do not specify which tests should be carried out. These Regulations in amending the 1998 Regulations will provide for all such equipment to be tested on an equal basis in order to be passed as fit for use for trade and will provide further testing options by permitting testing using simulation equipment.

10. Reference Documents - Basic Texts

(The draft measure must be forwarded with the notification, this part relates to other documents necessary for an understanding of the measure.)
