8. Main Content

The notified Royal Decree governs inspection bodies and the accreditation thereof by the national accreditation body, as well as the requirements and obligations incumbent upon independent control bodies and the competent body for the recognition thereof.

The Royal Decree also covers the possibility of identifying both the animal and the batch of animals from which it originated.

With regard to labelling, the Royal Decree stipulates that products subject to the Standard must bear a reference thereto and prohibits the use of certain terms closely related to the Iberian pork and pork products sector for products that do not comply with the Standard.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The implementation of this Royal Decree is intended to make the sector transparent and facilitate controls, allowing inspection bodies to carry out certain control stages. In this regard, the requirements and obligations that private control bodies must fulfil in order to receive authorisation are stipulated.
