Air temperature recorders

7. Notification Under Another Act

Commission Directive 92/1/EEC of 13 January 1992 on temperature control in transportation vehicles and warehousing

and storage depots for deep-frozen foods intended for human consumption

8. Main Content

The aim of the order is to stipulate the conditions for approval of air temperature recorders on French territory and to lay down a list of approved equipment.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The approval conditions correspond to the tests defined in standard NF-E18150, or its CEN equivalent (draft EN 12830). These conformity tests are carried out in accredited laboratories. The compliant equipment is intended, in particular, for vehicles registered in France which are used in the transportation of deep-frozen products.
