5. Title

6. Products Concerned

Cuajada [Spanish milk curd product].

7. Notification Under Another Act

8. Main Content

The notified draft Royal Decree aims to adopt the quality standard for cuajada. It also defines cuajada, the various types of cuajada, the essential elements of composition and quality, the essential and optional ingredients, the additives permitted and the standard on labelling that must be met.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The drafting of the draft Royal Decree adopting the quality standard for cuajada responds to the need to repeal the Order of 14 June 1983 adopting the quality standard for cuajada in the internal market, amended on several occasions, so that the possibility of using other, non-milk, products in cuajada may be contemplated, which, in view of the development of industrial production techniques, requires a classification of the different types of cuajada on the basis of the ingredients used.

Furthermore, even though there is no harmonised standard in the European Union on cuajada, various horizontal standards do apply, relating to milk products and foodstuffs in general, that refer to certain aspects regulated by the Order of 1983, which must be repealed by this draft Royal Decree.
