8. Main Content

The draft Regulations replace with amendments the Non-automatic Weighing Instruments (EEC Requirements) (Use for Trade) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1992 as amended ("the 1992 Regulations") and make provision as to the purposes for which such non-automatic weighing instruments may be used for trade, their manner of erection and specified restrictions on their use for trade.

Recognition of equivalent standards and testing does not appear to be applicable.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The replacement of the 1992 Regulations follows from a failure to notify those Regulations to the European Commission pursuant to Council Directive 83/189/EEC as amended (now replaced by Directive 98/34/EC as amended). The draft Regulations replicate those amendments made for the same reason in Great Britain by way of the Non-automatic Weighing Instruments (EEC Requirements) (Amendment) Regulations 1998 (S.I. 1998/2994) (98/0335/UK), which Regulations provide for a substituted Part III with modifications to the Non-automatic Weighing Instruments (EEC Requirements) Regulations 1995 (S.I. 1995/1907) as amended (that Part not being applicable to Northern Ireland).

10. Reference Documents - Basic Texts
