5. Title

Resolution partially amending Annex III to Order ITC/3709/2006 of 22 November, regulating State metrological control of taxi meters.

6. Products Concerned

The proposal amends the maximum permitted errors of instruments in service laid down in Annex III of the abovementioned Order in order to bring them into line with the revision of International Recommendation R21 of the International Organisation of Legal Metrology (OIML) adopted at the 42nd International Committee of Legal Metrology (CICLM) meeting. The normative document normally used in Spain for implementing State metrological control of this type of instrument is OIML International Recommendation R21. Any amendment to this recommendation must therefore be incorporated into the regulation applicable at national level.

Key words in the draft:

- Taxi meter
- Maximum permitted errors
- OIML R21

7. Notification Under Another Act

Its implementation is justified on the grounds of bringing the law into line with international recommendations.
