8. Main Content

The general regulation on the identity and purity of rennet and other milk coagulating enzymes intended for the internal market is amended. The mutual recognition clause is included.

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

The order of 14 January 1988 is amended in order to permit the use of enzymatic preparations of chymosin obtained from genetically modified micro-organisms, assessed by the Scientific Committee for Food of the European Commission, in the production of cheese. These products are subject to the current regulations on labelling and the mutual recognition clause is included.
