8. Main Content

The Order extends an agreement aiming to improve the quality of certain varieties of table grapes produced in France, throughout the marketing campaign. It establishes maturity requirements defined by a refractometric index. Its purpose is to ensure the maturity of marketed fruit when sold to consumers, by setting a minimum sugar content higher than that established under the regulations.

Keywords: grape – sugar content – quality – maturity – marketing – standardisation

9. Brief Statement of Grounds

Under this Order, the rules set out in the inter-branch agreement will become compulsory on French territory. This Order will promote a better quality taste in table grapes affected by the agreement.

This agreement, signed on 5 December 2011 was concluded for a period of three years. It was notified for the 2013 campaign under No 2013/195/F and extended by Order on 9 August 2013 for the 2013 marketing campaign.

This notification relates to 2014, i.e. the third year of the three-year agreement.
